PRESS RELEASE The New York Times

American daily newspaper having massive audience with over 11.8 million subscribers.

"The New York Times Highlights R.D. Engineering College Amid India's AI Transformation"

India Built the World's Back Office, A.I. is starting to shrink it. Among the select institutions featured in the report is R.D. Engineering College, Ghaziabad—recognized for its efforts to adapt to the changing demands of the industry. Leadership at the institution continues to drive this transformation. "You have to move with the markets," said Rakesh Sharma, President of the college, reinforcing the institution's commitment to staying aligned with industry trends.
